

Julia Muzychenko

Soprano

Biography Highlights

Born in 1994 22 June in St. Petersburg soprano Julia Muzychenko is currently a student at the St Petersburg State Conservatory with Prof. T. Novichenko. She participated in master classes with Natalie Dessay, Elena Obraztsova, Olga Makarina and Ildar Abdrazakov.

Julia Muzychenko's repertoire includes opera, songs and vocal cycles of various composers. She regularly performs at the St Petersburg Academic Philharmonia, Hermitage theater, among others.

In March 2015, she made her debut at the Mariinsky Theatre with the role of Cinderella in " Cinderella" modern composer V. Tarnopolsky.

Julia Muzychenko in December 2015 , made her debut at the Hermitage Theatre with role of Frasquita in Bize's " Carmen".

In 2016,she made her debut at the Theatre of the St Petersburg State Conservatory with the role of Iolanta in Tchaikovsky's Iolanta.

In summer 2016, Julia Muzychenko sang in concerts with orchestra (Conductor A. Kantorov) in Russian Music Seasons.

Julia Muzychenko is the winner of the Sergey Rachmaninov International Vocal Competition (1st Prize, 2016), the fifth B.Shtokolov International Vocal Competition (March 2016) ,Crescendo International Music Competition in Carnegie Hall in New York (1st Prize, 2013).

Julia Muzychenko's repertoire includes (role) :

Violetta La traviata, Musetta La bohème, Liu Turandot ,Marfa The Tsar's Bride, Frasquita Carmen, Swan Princess The tale of Tzar Saltan, Brigitta Iolanta , Lauletta Gianni Schicchi, Susanna Le Nozze di Figaro, Euridice Orfeo ed Euridice, Gilda Rigoletto, Adina L'elisir d'amore, Amina La Sonnambula, Giulietta I Capuleti e i Montecchi , Oscar Un ballo in maschera , Zerlina Don Giovanni , Elvira I Puritani ,Lucia Lucia Di Lammermoor , Ludmila Ruslan i Ludmila .